

LEARNING VACATIONS FOR GRANDPARENTS AND GRANDKIDS

Introduce your grandchildren to the Exciting World of Travel With the Joy of Learning...

through fully escorted tours with small groups (no more than 20 people) all around the world. Children ages 9 - 16 are welcome with their parents and/or grandparents. Create memories of a lifetime. Families can spend special time together while learning and having fun. What a perfect opportunity to excite young minds with the wonders of nature, the geography of this planet, the cultures of peoples past and present, and the pure fun of exploring. This is a rare opportunity for personal learning and growing together as a family. What better way to have an exciting vacation while teaching your children the value and joy of education. Our escorts and guides will make presentations with an excitement, an understanding, and a challenge for all generations.
